HELLO, DOLLY! played for 2844 performances on Broadway with Carol Channing in the title role. At the time it was the longest playing Broadway musical. Winner of 10 Tony Awards for Musical, Actress, Author, Producer, Director, Composer and Lyricist, Conductor and Musical Director, Scenic Designer, Costume Designer and Choreographer. HELLO, DOLLY! is full of memorable songs including Put On Your Sunday Clothes, Ribbons Down My Back, Before the Parade Passes By, Elegance, Hello, Dolly!, It Only Takes a Moment and So Long, Dearie. And we are off on a whirlwind race around New York at the turn of the twentieth century, as we follow the adventures of America's most beloved matchmaker.

*"And what do you do for a living, Mrs. Levi?" asks Ambrose Kemper in the first scene of this delightful of musical comedy.
"Some people paint, some sew...I meddle," replies Dolly.*

NYC during the Depression. ANNIE lives in an orphanage run by the ill-tempered, Miss Hannigan. Like the rest of the children, Annie hates Miss Hannigan. When Annie is chosen to spend the Christmas holidays with the wealthy industrialist Oliver Warbucks, Miss Hannigan is infuriated that Annie will be spending the holidays in the lap of luxury. Warbucks is charmed by Annie's spunk and good spirits and is eager to adopt her, but Annie is convinced that one day her real parents will come back to claim her. Warbucks loves her enough to offer a fifty thousand dollar reward in the search for her folks. That's when Miss Hannigan's con-artist brother Rooster and his floozy girlfriend Lily, concoct a scheme to pose as Annie's long lost parents. Along the way Annie befriends a mutt named Sandy and even President Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

The story of LITTLE WOMEN, Louisa M. Alcott's famous novel, is well known and loved. It is a story that never will grow old because it deals with a mother's love for her children and their appreciation. Who can forget tom boy Jo and her sacrificing her glorious hair to help finance her mother's trip to Washington, when the telegram arrived saying her father was dying? Or the budding romance between Meg & Mr. Brooke? And the interweaving lives of the March girls, Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy and Laurie, the boy next door, as they grow up happily together? The play delivers its message of hope and cheer in a way that cannot help but send us from the theater with a higher opinion of humankind than we had when we entered.

I LOVE YOU, YOU'RE PERFECT, NOW CHANGE is off-Broadway's longest running musical celebrating the mating game and exploring the joys of dating, romance, marriage, husbands, wives and in-laws. It delivers a hilarious, bittersweet and refreshingly honest look at love and relationships. The witty script and lyrics get down to the real meat of relationships glorifying such awkward, intimate and painful moments as bad first dates, meeting the parents, and being dragged to a dreaded "chick flick". This musical revue pays tribute to those who have loved and lost, to those who have fallen on their face at the portal of romance, to those who have dared to ask, "Say, what are you doing Saturday night?"

The 2012 Optional Favorite OF MICE AND MEN tells the story of two drifters, George and his friend Lennie. They have just arrived at a ranch to work for enough money to buy their own place. Lennie is a man-child, a little boy in the body of a dangerously powerful man. George's promise to allow Lennie to "tend to the rabbits" on their future land keeps Lennie calm, amidst distractions, as the overgrown child needs constant reassurance. But when a ranch boss' promiscuous wife is found dead in the barn, it's obvious that Lennie killed her. George is faced with a moral question: how should he deal with Lennie before the ranchers find him and take matters into their own hands.

RCP TEEN THEATER will be rockin' with HAIRSPRAY. When Tracy wins a role on the show, she becomes a celebrity overnight. She then launches a campaign to integrate the show. The musical's original Broadway production won eight Tony Awards out of thirteen nominations.
